ABOUT

Nicole Raviv is a world music artist. The Moroccan/Romanian singer was born in Montreal, Canada in an Israeli home. She is a multilingual performer in English, Hebrew, Arabic and French. Based in New York and in Tel Aviv, Nicole's sound defines this "melting pot" - a fusion of her stories unravelling as she travels through her journey, finding her identity in her music, blending traditional Middle Eastern roots with the Western modern world. You can hear language, emotion, spirituality and female strength in her songs.

Her new bilingual summer song "Hayati" is the first single off her upcoming Middle Eastern pop album. Filmed in Jaffa with an all female cast and produced by an Israeli team, the song captures confidence, love, cultural richness and regional influences.

Nicole Raviv is also an official National Anthem singer for the NHL, NFL, MLS, and NBA teams.
